PIKE COUNTY

ARKANSAS

The 1890 U. S. Census of Arkansas and most of the rest of the country was destroyed by fire in 1921 in Washington, D. C. This "reconstruction" has been made using the 1893 Pike County Tax Receipt Book, paid early in 1895 just after the court house fire. The County Clerk, J. C. Hughes, usually recorded only the initials of the tax payer. However, those names marked with an asterisk (*) have had the first name added from an 1883 tax book. This "1890 Pike County Census reconstruction" contains the name of the tax payer, the legal description of his or her property (section, township, range), and the number of males in the household over 21 paying the poll tax. This listing also contains the names of people owning land in Pike County but living elsewhere. However, those paying the poll tax were county residents. Women could not vote at this time thus did not pay the poll tax.

There were 1,804 plus tax receipts written during the 1893-1894 tax year in Pike County. This corresponds closely with the missing 1890 U. S. Census data. In 1890 the total county population was 8,537, 8,053 whites and 484 blacks. There were 4,350 males and 4,187 females in the county. They were divided into 1,533 families of an average of 5.57 persons. There were 1,498 males aged 18-44 and 1,684 males from age 21 and up.

INTRODUCTION

Pike County was created on November 1, 1833 from parts of Clark and Hempstead counties. Parts of Clark County were annexed in 1873 and 1877. Part of Pike County was annexed to Howard County in 1873. The county seat was located at Zebulon, later named Murfreesboro, in 1836. A log courthouse was built that year. It was destroyed by fire in 1855. An other courthouse was built only to be destroyed by fire on March 9, 1895. All county records, with the exception of a few tax books, were destroyed.

The following is a list of Pike County Townships:

ANTOINE	created about 1850; part to Eagle about 1894.
BREWER	created about 1833; part annexed to Howard County in 1873.
CANEY FORK	created about 1858; part to Pike/Pike City about 1897.
CLARK	annexed from Clark County in 1873.
EAGLE	created about 1894 from parts of Antoine and Mountain townships.
MISSOURI	created about 1833; part to Wolf Creek about 1877.
MOUNTAIN	created in 1858; part to Eagle about 1894.
MUDDY FORK	created in 1855; part annexed to Howard County in 1873.
PIKE/PIKE CITY	created about 1897 from part of Caney Fork.
SALINE	created about 1897 from part of Missouri.
SELF CREEK	created about 1886.
THOMPSON	created about 1833.
WHITE	created about 1847.
WOLF CREEK	created in 1877 from annexed parts of Clark County and Missouri Township.
